KLOVE serves me as a resident in my local community by giving me hope in time of trouble.

My local community has a place to listen to good clean wholesome music for the whole family. We wouldn't have a good Christian station if you displace them by an LPFM broadcaster.

Having KLOVE is a great way to share with my friends that want a good place to listen to clean wholesome music. I believe that this is a good service to the public.